A Word from Michael

A few weeks ago, when Mr. Bob was out of town, my wife Beth gave the children's lesson in worship. She reminded the kids of how one year ago, the good folks of UBC gave my family a pounding — a pound of peanut butter, two pounds of coffee, five pounds of sugar, etc. She told the children how generous the church had been to think of us and to supply our needs. We had bags full of Kleenex and paper towels and toilet paper and napkins, just to mention the paper goods!

In fact, you gave so generously that the only place where we could think to store the canned vegetables and soups and jellies and detergent was under the ping pong table in the kids' game room. All last fall and into the spring, someone in our family might ask, "Do we have any mayonnaise?" And the answer would be, "I don't know... Go look under the ping-pong table."

Another sign of your generosity to us was that even now, a year after the pounding, my family still has a few items left from those gifts. In other words, for more than a year, we have had tangible reminders — in the form of napkins or salad dressing or green beans — of your love and care. Thank you for these and many other ways that you have extended love and care to my family during this time.

As Beth reminded the kids, there are many across our state who are in need of our love and care. We will not send them a pound of peanut butter or flour. But through our state missions offering, we can send them a gift that will serve as a tangible reminder of the love and care of Christ as shown through Virginia Baptists. Thanks for your ongoing generosity and ministry.

In Christ, Michael

When you see Lynn Martin be sure and thank her for her 12 years of service as the editor of UBC's WORD weekly newsletter. Lynn has come in every Monday and Tuesday morning since 2001, faithfully pulling together, and often chasing down, all the bits and pieces of news, announcements and information that come to you every week. Lynn, keep up the wonderful work!

Thank You

We would like to extend our heartfelt thanks to those who called, sent cards, and brought food after the recent death of Sam Payne (Lucille's brother and Judy's uncle). Your kindness means a lot to us.

— Lucille Holliday & Judy Shah

We deeply appreciate the minister's visit and the cards, prayers, and PrayerGrams from your church during Sid's stay at UVa Hospital. The encouragement and Christian love were a ray of hope for us. We will always remember you and keep you in our prayers.
