UNIVERSITY BAPTIST CHURCH

CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA

A Word from Michael

God is good! This past Sunday, Phil Woodson and our youth did a wonderful job planning and leading our worship service. It was so inspiring to see Ismael Moubossy, Joey Hamel and Jacob Morris being baptized, to hear Mattie Morris speaking about how UBC has nurtured her Christian faith, and to receive Will Wagoner’s request for baptism. Visit this link to view videos: www.youtube.com/channel/UC9QNK5MbKST-Jt8LAANzhaA.

I also thank God for your response to our Pledge Challenge! We are less than $5,000 from making our goal. If we raise that final $5,000, a church member has agreed to match it! With this goal met, we will be able to continue to invest in the lives of our babies, our children and our youth, even as we all grow in faith, in love, in service and in generosity. God is good!

Meet Our New Ministry Intern . . .

Hello! I am a May, 2013, graduate of the Baptist Theological Seminary at Richmond. My husband, Jim, and I have three grown children — Mical, Jaime and Ashley. We also have five grandchildren with one on the way! I have lived most of my life in Nashua, New Hampshire.

I received an undergraduate degree in Psychology and then went back to school at the age of 42 to obtain a Master of Education degree with a concentration in Counseling. In my teenage years, God had planted a desire in me to attend seminary, but things did not fall into place until we moved to Virginia in 2005.

I began attending classes in Richmond in the spring of 2009. Graduating from seminary four and a half years later was a “dream come true,” but I wasn’t sure where it would lead me. I interned as a chaplain at Chippenham Medical Center in Richmond for seven months and was encouraged to continue in this line of work. Presently, I am hoping to get a Residency position in the fall of 2014 either at MCV or UVA.

I also want to be very involved in the life of the church and am so grateful to Pastor Michael and you for agreeing to let me become part of your congregation while I am discerning God’s direction. Thank you for this exciting opportunity, and I look forward to a wonderful relationship and experience with you! I will begin my ministry internship with University Baptist Church on Sunday, March 9.

CHANGE SERVICE REQUESTED

Welcome, New Members!

Joey Hamel is a 6th grader at Henley Middle School. He is the son of Katherine Hamel and the grandson of Richard and Nelda Vaughan.

Jacob Morris is a 6th grader at Walton Middle School. He is the son of Scott and Laura Morris and the grandson of Robby and Judy Gough.

Ismael Moubossy is a 9th grader at Charlottesville High School. He is the son of Perpetue Moubossy.

Profession of Faith

We rejoice in the decision made by Will Wagoner this past Sunday in the worship service. He made a profession of faith and requested baptism. Will is the son of David and Jennifer Wagoner and the grandson of Shirley Wagoner.

UBC Pictorial Directories can be picked up on Sunday in the First Floor Lobby, on Wednesday in Fellowship Hall and during the week in the Church Office.

(One directory per family; $5 donation)

Concerns

Jim Sivley — UVA Hospital

Sympathy

Christian sympathy is extended to Shelby Clements and her family at the death of her mother, Martha Terrell.

Thank You

Words do not come to me to show how much your cards, flowers and presence mean to me and my family at Linda's passing. Linda loved UBC and her church family, and it will always be my church home.
