Lent:

A Time of Spiritual Renewal

A Word from Michael

During this season of Lent, I have been reading Richard Rohr’s Wondrous Encounters: Scripture for Lent as my daily devotion. Today’s reflection is on Daniel 3, the prayer of one of the three young men in the fiery furnace, and on Matthew 18:21–35, the parable of the “unforgiving servant.” Rohr connects these two Bible passages by suggesting that refusing to forgive can be like time spent in a fiery furnace. He writes, “If you do not pray to be released from your unforgiving heart, you will indeed keep burning. Sometimes, only God can release you from such a furnace.”

Rohr then wrote this prayer:

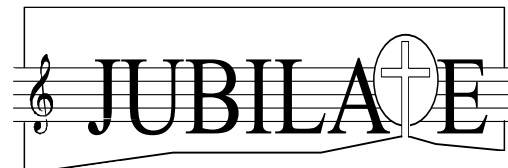

“God of Compassion, Mother and Father of all Mercies, do not let us shame ourselves — or the wonder of your name — by living outside of the wondrous loop of your forgiveness and mercy.”

I hazard to guess that we all have been hurt by others. My prayer is that we will pray to be released from an unforgiving heart, so that we may show compassion, forgiveness and mercy to others in the same manner that our Lord has shown it to us.

~Blessings, Michael

CBF Easter Offering
 For National Missions

Through the end of April, we will be collecting contributions for National Missions. Our goal is $3000. The WMU is again focusing its emphasis on the CBF missions activities of Paula Settle in Nada, Kentucky, one of our nation's 20 "pockets of poverty" identified by the Cooperative Baptist Fellowship over a decade ago.

Thank You

A great big THANK YOU to everyone who helped make this year's Variety Show a success — performers, audience, dessert providers and especially the Directors and Producers (Larry Johnson, Laura Morris, Robby Gough).
