Jubilate Needs Your Help!

Beginning August 31, Jubilate will have supper (6:00-6:30) and rehearsal at church on Sunday nights. We would like to have 3 teams of 2 people each to prepare a light supper on a rotating basis. Preparations for the Jubilate meal would be coordinated with the Youth meal volunteers.

The schedule for Jubilate is planned for September through November and January through April.

This is a great opportunity to support Jubilate and to get to know the members better.

Contact Alba Beasley for more information or to sign up.

UNIVERSITY BAPTIST CHURCH

CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA

A Word from Michael

Have you noticed how the Corner is beginning to bustle with foot traffic and activity? UVA move-in weekend is coming up, and it’s time for us to welcome back students. This Sunday, Jubilate will sing, and there will be a welcome back luncheon for students and any UBC members who would like to serve as table hosts. If you can help, please contact Sue Walton (293-5106).

As students return to town, I hope we will learn more about our neighborhood — not only the University, but also the hospital, the streets around Venable Elementary, and the 10th and Page Street areas. The heart of our Wednesday night programs this fall will focus on the theme, “Welcome to the Neighborhood!”

Having said all this, our first few Wednesdays will not fit into this theme! Week 1 in September will feature a piano duet concert by Jack Averill and Barbara Moore. For week 2, we’ll learn about the dire situation of Christians in Iraq from former Ambassador Nat Howell (husband of UBC member Margie Howell). In week 3, Dr. Tracy Hartman of BTSR will display and talk about the St. John’s Illuminated Bible.

After these sessions, we’ll explore questions of neighborhood. The first Wednesday in October, Dr. Travis Collins, former pastor of Bon Air Baptist in Richmond, will describe how established churches can start “Fresh Expressions” of faith communities primarily to benefit neighbors who are not yet members of any church.

Then our guest speakers will include: Rev. Hodari Hamilton, pastor of FBC, West Main; Venable resident Garrett Trent on Habitat for Humanity; Holly Edwards on parish nursing; Officer Joe Brown on community policing; and Corbin Breaud to talk about AHIP’s “Block by Block” housing renovation program for the 10th and Page St. neighborhoods.

I hope you’ll join us on Wednesday evenings this fall as we get to know each other and our neighbors better.

~ Blessings, Michael

P.S. I’ll be in Atlanta next Monday and Tuesday to chair CBF’s Ministries Council meeting. On Wednesday, August 27, I will have minor shoulder surgery. I hope to be back in church on August 31. I appreciate your prayers for both of these events next week!

St. John's Bible

On Wednesday, September 17, at 6:15 pm, in Fellowship Hall, Tracy Hartman, professor at Baptist Theological Seminary at Richmond, will be displaying and talking about sections from The Saint John's Bible, the first Bible of its kind to be produced in 500 years. Smithsonian Magazine called this project "one of the most extraordinary undertakings of our time."
