UNIVERSITY BAPTIST CHURCH

CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA

A Word From Erin

Last Sunday after church, the youth headed to Riverview Park for an aptly named Afternoon of Awesomeness. After sharing a picnic lunch outside on the most beautiful day God has graced us with this fall, the fun began.

There were team competitions. Boats were made from aluminum foil and tape, and raced down the Rivanna River. Impressively, one boat even remained intact! Relays were attempted, with the sole purpose of getting each team over the finish line in absurdly hilarious fashion — How would you attempt to get a team of five people across a field, letting only 4 feet and 2 hands touch the ground?

Then there were challenges for the whole group. Do you think it's possible to fit 10 teenagers into a circle 1.5 feet across? They didn't either . . . at first! But through lots of varying input and ideas, many failed attempts and re-attempts, the group managed to get everyone on board, and stay balanced there long enough to sing a rousing rendition of The Muffin Man. I'm not sure anyone knows why we chose this song to celebrate.

We had the chance to discuss the importance of trusting each other and trusting God, and explored some of what the Bible has to say about this (not always what you would expect)! And finally, each of us had the chance to live out that trust, falling backward off a picnic table into the waiting arms of the rest of the group. Though initially some of us were hesitant, everyone had the chance to experience the thrill of falling, and the reassurance and support of being caught by 20 or so outstretched arms.

It was fun! It was a chance to get to know each other in a different environment, and to celebrate strengths and abilities in each other that we didn't necessarily know were there. It was a chance to laugh, and then fall over, and then laugh some more. It was an opportunity for some of the younger members to let their voices be heard, and lead the group toward success. It allowed the group to affirm each member, quite literally catching her as she plummeted to the ground from atop a picnic table. It was a chance to eat two entire packages of Oreos over the course of the afternoon. It was a chance to fellowship in God's creation on an absolutely beautiful day.

Did I mention that it was awesome?!

For two weeks during the winter UBC opens Fellowship Hall overnight to feed and house homeless men. This winter that will be Saturday, January 31, through Friday, February 13.

We need a few people to help coordinate the different aspects of this ministry: food, cots, laundry, overnight, trash. Over the past nine years many of the same people have been volunteering to be the coordinators of the program. We need some new people to come forward and give these “veterans” a hand — help them out, a little or a lot.

This is YOUR opportunity to help this ministry.
