PRAYING DURING LENT

February 18 to March 29

“Seek God for the City” blends biblical insights and guided prayer suggestions that will help us see and connect with the challenges facing our community.

We are using this resource during worship, in our Bible studies and on Wednesday evenings as we “Seek God” together as a congregation.

Copies are still available.

Pray for the cities, peoples, tribes, and countries of the continent of Africa.

Pray for Jubilate as they complete their Spring Tour and travel home on Thursday of this week. Pray for those people traveling with them — Alba Beasley, Barbara Moore, Robby Gough, and Anne Keith.

A Word From Michael

In this Monday’s devotion in our Seek God for the City devotional guide, we are called to seek God on behalf of ministries. Paul wrote in 1 Thessalonians 3:1, “Finally, brothers (and sisters), pray for us that the word of the Lord will spread rapidly and be glorified.”

As you know, there are many ministries taking place at UBC. This week, Alba, Barbara Moore, Robby Gough, and Anne Keith are leading Jubilate on their spring break tour. Alba recently posted an article on our website about Pam spending her snow day cooking for a pre-tour Friday night dinner, students taking tests on the bus via wi-fi while traveling to Pittsburgh on Saturday, and Alba scrambling to teach alto parts to some sopranos because of last-minute drop outs. In all this, Alba finds joy in investing “in the lives of some of the brightest and best college students ever.” You can read Alba’s full article on our website: <http://wp.me/p3JX6D-162>.

Similarly, last weekend, Erin Brown led a lock-in for twenty-one youth. They cooked breakfast for the church, and held their own worship/prayer time during the 11 o’clock hour. Erin’s report, pictures, and thank-you note can be found on our website: <http://wp.me/p3JX6D-178>.

Starting this Wednesday, we will set up a volunteer sign-up board for Mission Madness (April 17-19). Please consider helping this exciting ministry as we host over 250 youth from all over Virginia to engage in mission and service projects here in Charlottesville!

As UBC seeks God for the city, we the church staff greatly welcome your prayers, not only for us but also or especially for our church community engaged in ministry. May the word of the Lord spread and be glorified!

~Blessings, Michael

Rob Fox to Speak Wednesday, March 11

Rob Fox will be our Wednesday Night speaker on March 11 at 6:15 pm in Fellowship Hall. Rob is a native Virginian and a long time Baptist minister. He is a graduate of Baptist Theological Seminary at Richmond (BTSR) and was ordained to the gospel ministry in 1996 by Culpeper Baptist Church. Rob has served in ministry roles in five churches in Virginia, and as an administrator in two seminaries during his seventeen years of ministry. He currently serves as field coordinator for CBF Virginia. Rob assists 350 churches in Virginia as they connect with CBF mission and ministries.

Dr. Ronald Crawford to Speak March 18

Ron Crawford, President of BTSR, will be our Wednesday Night speaker on March 18 at 6:15 pm in Fellowship Hall. Prior to becoming BTSR’s second president in 2007, Ron served as pastor for 27 years, including congregations in Virginia, North Carolina, and Florida. While in Virginia, Dr. Crawford served as president of the Baptist General Association of Virginia and as president of the Virginia Baptist General Board.

A graduate of North Carolina State University, Crawford earned his Master of Divinity degree in 1977 and his Doctor of Ministry degree in 1985, both from Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary. In 1993, he earned his Master of Public Administration from Virginia Commonwealth University.
