A Word From Michael

What a wonderful evening we had celebrating Bob Badgett's retirement last Wednesday! Over 170 people gathered in the Fellowship Hall for a delicious fried chicken dinner and ice cream sundae dessert (Bob's request). After dinner, folks expressed their appreciation for Bob and Patti's ministry with us for the last twelve years. Former Senior Minister Tom Leland, Betty Barker, Lindsay Marshall, Barbara Phipps, Barbara Newlon, Ray Gaines, Seamore Zhu, Diane Mundell, Chris Owens, Alba Beasley, and others spoke about how much Bob and Patti meant to them.

During the ceremony, I presented to Bob and Patti a church gift of season tickets to attend the UVA 2016 baseball games. Another gift is a framed photograph of the church with its mat filled with our comments and well wishes.

As many of you know, we are also collecting a love offering for the Badgetts. So far, over $2,500 has been received, and we will continue to receive donations until this Friday. Checks made out to UBC can be mailed to the church office, or you can donate via our webpage: <http://universitybaptist.org/resources/giving/>. We will present the love offering check and the framed picture at a later date.

At the end of the evening, Bob gave this advice to our young children and even to our adults: "Just be yourself. God made you the way you are. You are wonderful. You've been wonderfully made and created. Allow the Spirit of God to express your self and your gifts in the way that God made you. . . . My philosophy of life has always been: 'It's no big deal.' We serve a God who is sovereign, who knows everything about us. He made this day, and He knows everything that is going to happen in it, so we don't need to make it a big deal. . . . It's no big deal. It's going to be OK. God will provide for you, even after we're gone."

It is a big deal that Bob and Patti Badgett will no longer be with us. We will dearly miss them. But we trust that God will provide for us in the coming days as we continue the ministry and service that the Badgetts so faithfully offered to UBC for the glory of God.

~Blessings, Michael

CHANGE SERVICE REQUESTED

Concerns

Jim Sivley — UVA Hospital
Helen Mackey — C'ville Health/Rehab
Terry Arey — At Home
Hugh Garnett — The Laurels

Sympathy

Christian sympathy is extended to Ed Parker and his family at the recent death of his sister, Betty Burlingame.

Thank You

Thank you for including us in the college worship service and for making UBC a warm and welcoming church we could call home.

Angela & Justin
Graduating UVA Students

Thank you for this season's generous donation of shelter, food, and compassion, and thank you for your financial support. We couldn't do what we do without your help!

Dawn Grzegorzczk
PACEM Exec. Director

The young people and adults who helped me as part of your mission weekend did, indeed, share HOPE. My yard was in such terrible shape that I wasn't sure there was hope for it, but they cleaned it up beautifully. They reminded me that God is love, and I felt love everywhere that day. I can't thank you all enough!

Clare, Love INC client

I want to pass along a BIG thank you for the help from the youth on your Mission Madness day. We really enjoyed working with UBC and would love to continue a partnership with you.

Rebecca Hightower
Habitat Store Volunteer Coordinator
We are so grateful for the wonderful job your group performed during your Mission Madness weekend.

Mary Jackson
Hospitality House

Pray for Bob and Patti Badgett as they begin this new chapter in their lives.
