Happy Anniversary!

Congratulations to Michael Cheuk on his Third Anniversary as the Senior Minister at UBC.

Many thanks for another wonderful year of leadership and ministry. We extend our thanks also to Beth, who has been a wonderful addition to UBC. And we're glad Thea and Wesley are here!

During September we also acknowledge as a church family the special contributions of

Thomas Hill, a very dedicated staff person who is celebrating his 33rd Anniversary at UBC.

Thank you, Thomas!

Thank you to everyone who helped fill bags with grocery items to be delivered to the CBFVA General Assembly last week. The bags, along with those from churches all over the state, will be given to LUCHA Ministries to be distributed among Hispanic immigrants in Virginia.

Welcome, Joshua Hearne

We welcome Joshua Hearne to UBC as our Wednesday night speaker this week at 6:15 in Fellowship Hall.

Joshua and his wife, Jessica, are CBF field personnel living among the homeless, near-homeless, poor, addicted, and hungry in Southside Virginia. They serve through Grace and Main Fellowship, an intentional Christian community practicing hospitality and prayer in Danville, Virginia. They are endorsed by the Cooperative Baptist Fellowship as Global Mission Field Personnel.

Joshua is also the Executive Director of Third Chance Ministries, a ministry of Grace and Main to identify, develop, and support missionaries who will confront poverty in its many forms by cultivating and nurturing intentional communities in areas of profound need.

The Hearnes have a daughter, Lucy.

Josh and Jessica invite you to pray with them for the marginalized and impoverished people of Southside Virginia.
