Welcome, Dr. Dan Bagby

Our guest speaker on Wednesday, October 21, at 6:15 pm in Fellowship Hall will be Professor Daniel Bagby with the third in a three-part series entitled “Healthy Relationships.”

Professor Bagby is currently the Theodore F. Adams Professor Emeritus of Pastoral Care at Baptist Theological Seminary at Richmond. He has pastored for almost thirty years and has served in two pastoral counseling centers and as chaplain to a juvenile detention center and a women’s prison.

Dan has been a guest speaker at UBC on numerous occasions and served as interim pastor at UBC in 2000-2001.

South Carolina Flood Relief

The Cooperative Baptist Fellowship is coordinating an effort to assist those affected by recent floods in South Carolina. If you would like to help out, you can make donations to UBC and earmark them for SC Flood. Donations will be forwarded to CBF-SC. You can also contribute directly at <http://www.cbf.net/flood/>.

UNIVERSITY BAPTIST CHURCH

CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA

A Word from Michael

Last weekend, Beth and I took Thea (and Wes) to Durham, North Carolina, to tour Duke University. We arrived on campus on a clear, sunny, crisp day, breathing in the fresh air of the Piedmont forest on the brink of changing foliage, surrounded by the Georgian red brick of the East Campus and the Collegiate Gothic style of the West Campus.

At the general orientation lecture before the tour, the Assistant Admissions Officer encouraged the audience of potential applicants not to stress out about the application process or be anxious about the acceptance process. He also reminded the parents not to be fearful or worry about the financial package.

“Those things will come,” he said, “but today, enjoy the tour, ask questions, and find out all you can about the university.” Finally, he reminded all of us, “You’re not alone; others are on the same journey as you.”

That admissions counselor’s words reminded me of the previous Friday night when Beth and I had fifteen UBC members over for dinner. It was a diverse group of people, but they all had one thing in common: the death of a family member. After dinner, Suzanne Smith, Chaplain at Sentara Martha Jefferson Hospital, led the group in a conversation about coping with grief and loss. Although the circumstances, the timing, and the particulars of each loss were different, it was helpful to know that we were not alone in our journey. We have one another, and we have Christ. Together, we can learn to adapt in this new reality and live fully today.

Jesus said, “Do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will worry about itself”; instead, seek first God’s Kingdom (Matthew 5:33-34). Good words to remember, no matter what stage of life we’re in.

~Blessings, Michael

Chrismons — Make Just One (or more, if you like!)

Our Chrismons are looking worn and tired. With Christmas approaching (faster than you think), we need to make some new ones. We're asking each crafty person at UBC to make just one Chrismon — then we'll have dozens of new ones to help us celebrate this year.

Each Chrismon should be only white and gold and 6x6 inches or smaller. You can use whatever materials you love to work with — wood, paint, clay, cross-stitch, felt, fabric, beads (NO STYROFOAM). There are lots of ideas on the internet and a few patterns, guidelines, and white beads in the Floral Room.

Chrismons should be completed by December 1. Contact Sarah Buchanan for more information (434-409-9064 or sarahbucha@gmail.com).

IMPACT Annual Assembly

Report from the Leadership Retreat: share several statistical trends, present the survey results, review our plans/proposals for action, be open to your additional ideas, and seek your approval and your support as we implement these action plans.

Shoebox Time!

The WMU is again sponsoring the Operation Christmas Child ministry. Our gift-filled shoeboxes demonstrate God's love in a tangible way to children in all corners of the world. Plan to fill a shoebox and make a difference in a child's life.

Lists of items to put in the shoeboxes are available in the Church Office and in Fellowship Hall on Wednesday evenings.

The collection date for our shoeboxes is mid-November.
