Alma Hunt Offering for Virginia Missions

During September we have been supporting the Alma Hunt Offering for Virginia Missions and the Chaplain Service Prison Ministry of Virginia, Inc. (specifically, Chaplain Julie Perry at the Fluvanna Correctional Center for Women). Our 2014 goal is $4,000, to be divided evenly between these two mission efforts. To date we have collected $2,702.

For more information, go to chaplain-service.org/ and vbmb.org/About/Alma-Hunt-Offering.cfm.

We Need More Acolytes

If you are in 3rd through 6th grade and would like to serve in worship as an Acolyte, please contact Alba Beasley. Training is provided.

UNIVERSITY BAPTIST CHURCH

CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA

A Word from Michael

This Sunday is “World Communion Sunday,” when we acknowledge the almost universal observance of the Lord’s Supper by Christian churches throughout the world.

According to ministrymatters.com, this day was first observed by a Presbyterian church in 1936, and later adopted by the Federal Council of Churches in 1940. Since then, this celebration has grown into an international ecumenical celebration of Christian unity.

We will observe World Communion Sunday with the ordinance of the Lord’s Supper, which remembers the night when Jesus broke bread with his disciples for the last time before his betrayal and crucifixion. We also celebrate the fact that the movement Jesus began over two thousand years ago in Palestine now covers all corners of the earth. On this Sunday, we unite with Christians world-wide in observing the Lord’s Supper, acknowledging our unity in Christ as gathered by the power of the Holy Spirit, even as we recognize the diversity of customs, traditions, languages, and liturgies in which we worship our living God.

Prepare to worship this Sunday as we join with Christians world-wide to celebrate our oneness in Christ!

~Blessings, Michael

Travis Collins to Speak Wednesday, October 1

Travis Collins will be our speaker this Wednesday evening, October 1, at 6:15 in Fellowship Hall. He will be sharing with us information about Fresh Expressions, new forms of church for our changing culture, focusing on people who are not yet part of any church.

Travis Collins serves as Director of Mission Advancement and Virginia Regional Coordinator for Fresh Expressions. He previously served Bon Air Baptist Church in Richmond, Virginia, as Senior Pastor from 2002 until March 2014.

Travis’s twenty-five plus years of ministry have included missionary service in Venezuela and Nigeria. He is a graduate of Samford University in Birmingham, Alabama, and earned the Master of Divinity and Doctor of Philosophy degrees from the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville, Kentucky.

Travis and his wife, Keri, have three adult children.

Thank You, From Randi McFarland

I want to thank all of you for your outpouring of love and support for my sermon on Sunday, September 21! Thank you for your kind words of encouragement, for telling me specifically what you liked, and what I could improve. I want to especially thank Michael for his many suggestions, and my Site Team for their valuable input.

As I continue my internship, I want to thank everyone for their attentiveness and smiles as I looked out over the congregation and for laughing at my attempts at humor. You have all been so gracious in so many ways, and I thank you from the bottom of my heart.

This is a wonderful teaching congregation, and I am blessed to have the privilege of doing an internship here. I will always have fond memories of this church and am so glad that my very first congregational sermon was here at UBC!
