Jubilate Fundraiser

Friday, November 7
5:00 pm — 10:00 pm

At

29 N across from
Fashion Square Mall

All you have to do is invite people and/or go there for a meal. Tell the server that you are supporting Jubilate. They will donate 15% of the proceeds of the meal to Jubilate.

We appreciate all that UBC does for us. We hope that this will be a way to have some time with family and friends, enjoy a good meal, and know that Jubilate is blessed by you!

Stewardship
Celebration Sunday
November 16, 2014

You will soon receive a letter from the Stewardship Committee with information about the 2014 Stewardship Emphasis.

A Word From Our Stewardship Committee

Have you considered how God is calling us to expand His Kingdom? Many in the church family have been meeting, studying, and searching for answers. Ruben Swint, our generosity coach, has led us to explore our people, our neighborhood, and our programs.

We are doing many things well, and new ministry outreaches are exciting. As prospects become reality, we will share the opportunities and call for support in attendance, participation, and generosity.

Will you pray for ways you and your family can best support the outreach?

Will you have a family discussion about the importance of UBC to you and others you love?

Will you renew your commitment to support UBC with your time, talents, and giving?

In future WORD articles we will be sharing reports on how we are doing. These are exciting times for our church.

— Hugh Ames

Welcome, Officer Joe Brown

Master Officer Joe F. Brown, III, will be our guest speaker this Wednesday night as part of our “Welcome to the Neighborhood” series. Joe is a graduate of Averett University, earning a B.A. in Criminal Justice. After serving in the U.S. Air Force for six years, Joe served as a Police Officer, Detective, SWAT member, and Firearms Instructor. Currently he is a State Certified

Crime Prevention Specialist with the Charlottesville Police Department.

He is married to Dawn, who is employed at State Farm; and they have a son, Joe IV, 27, and a daughter, Julee, 24.

CHANGE SERVICE REQUESTED

Concerns

Shelley Payne — At Home
 Jeanne Nye — At Home

Sympathy

Christian sympathy is extended to the family of Rea Loving at his death on October 30.

Thank You

In response to Mom breaking her hip, our thanks go out to Mr. Bob for his advice, to Larry Johnson and Robby Gough for building the ramp, to all who sent cards and PrayerGrams, and to all who have visited Mom at the Laurels.

— Sam & Helen Mackey

Woodbrook School is so very thankful for the school supplies you donated to us. They are being put to good use and are greatly appreciated by our neediest families. Our long relationship with University Baptist Church truly represents the best in community partnerships!

— Lisa Molinaro, Principal

Transportation Team Needs Volunteers

The Circle of Caring Transportation Team could use a couple of volunteers who live in the Pantops or Keswick areas and would be willing to give rides to UBC folks either to or from church or for medical appointments. Our current team members represent the other areas of town pretty well, but there's a gap on the east side of town.

— Peter Ohlms, Transportation Team

Young Adult Brunch

The Young Adult group will meet Saturday, November 8, for brunch from 10:30 to 1:30 at the home of Will and Erin Brown (4000 City Walk Way #351). For more information, contact Will or Erin.
