

Words of Welcome

Marking the Hour Barbara Moore
We mark the hour, awakening us to the presence of God, alerting us to the voice of Christ, and centering us in the embrace of the Holy Spirit.

Opening Dr. Matthew Tennant

Prelude – “Holy, Holy, Holy” (Post) Barbara Moore

Lighting the Candles
We light these candles to welcome the Spirit, for they represent how Jesus is the Light of the world which guides us through life.

Opening the Bible
We open the Bible to remind us that God speaks to us through the Holy Word.

Call to Worship (inspired by Proverbs 8) Kelly Kossi

Leader: Let us worship the Triune God.

People: Let us worship the One who spoke in the beginning and created something out of nothing.

Leader: Let us worship the Triune God.

People: Let us worship the One who took on the clothing of humanity to set those who were oppressed free.

Leader: Let us worship the Triune God.

People: Let us worship the One whose Spirit rests continually upon us, calling us from sorrow-filled endings to bright new beginnings.

Did you know that we light the candles in worship to represent how Jesus is the light of the world? Or, that we open the Bible to remind us that God speaks to us through the Holy Word? These two tasks are silent, but important markers for the beginning of our worship together. We need members and regular attenders of ALL ages to help us start our Sunday worship. If you are able to sign up please visit our website www.universitybaptist.org and check out our volunteer page for up-to-date openings. If you are just curious and want to learn more about what this means, feel free to contact Pheobe Brown at pbrown@universitybaptist.org.
