UNIVERSITY BAPTIST CHURCH

October 19, 2021 Vol. 72, No. 845

Connecting Some Disparate Dots ON WATCH

In January, we adopted a vision for the new year. At the time, many of us believed the pandemic was almost over. People were getting vaccinated and I felt hopeful about regathering. At the time, we looked ahead at a post-pandemic church. The other ministers and I embarked on a number of listening sessions. Then we distilled what we heard into "Community Conversation Insights and Action Plans for 2021."

Several actions grew out of both our vision and the community conversation insights. We bought a cart and soft-serve ice cream machine, and we started giving away ice cream in front of the church every Wednesday. We also took a long look into the future with UBC2030. Of these two actions, one exceeded our expectations. The other failed to gain much traction. Most people like ice cream. Thus, making Wednesdays into Ice-cream-day wasn't difficult. Yet, imagining the church in a decade stretched our fatigued minds, and UBC2030 will occupy the backburner for now.

The seeds for an intermediary step germinated in my mind as I thought about the future and how similar our worship services are each week. I shared my idea with the other ministers as the "Out of the Box" series of worship services. Your church staff (Will B., Val, Will C., Barbara, Lexi, Marcus, Alan, and Thomas) worked tirelessly to put my vague description of an "Out of the Box" series into action. So far, many of you loved some parts of the new services, and some of you are looking forward to getting back to normal in November.

To those who have shared their feedback on this "Out of the Box" visit to Discomfort Land, thank you for letting us know what you think. To those who haven't said anything, please tell one of us what you think.

Today, I want to invite you to try and see stream of common themes connecting each disparate dot in UBC life. Our vision was about spiritual growth, coming together, putting our faith in action, welcoming others, and looking to the future. Our community conversations highlighted the longing to be back together with a sense of community. They also reemphasized a desire to grow in all its forms, especially with outreach. Besides giving away ice cream, our outreach will include t-shirts, mugs, stickers, and more events. During the community conversations, people told me they felt like UBC should be bold and maintain a “why not?” attitude. This led to the “Out of the Box” series. Finally, people told me they are willing to endure some discomfort to grow, as long as we remain faithful to who God called us to be.

What’s next? Among the staff, we try to hold one another accountable and avoid throwing new ideas against the wall to see what sticks. Even though it might not always be obvious, our goal is to be consistent. We want to be the church God is calling us to be, and we don’t want to limit God’s vision through our desire for safety, stability, and full coffers.

If what we’ve done this year seems unrelated or random, then I have not done a good job explaining the reasons we do what we do. Let me know when you have a question or wonder how something connects to the vision. As we engage with one another more, we will learn from each other and grow together. Ask questions. Make suggestions. Listen with an open mind, and extend grace to the other members of your church family.

I am optimistic about the future because God is more powerful than anything we face. Where we are going, God is already there preparing a place for us. I can’t wait to see the fruit of what we’re doing now, whether we see it next year or in a decade.

Peace,
Matt

Search Committee Update:

The Associate Minister for Music and Worship Search Committee has been hard at work. We have advertised widely and eight people have applied for the position so far. We are prayerfully reviewing each applicant and listening for God's direction. Please keep each member of the committee in your prayers, and pray for the person God is leading to join our ministry team. If you know someone who might be interested, please tell them to send a cover letter and resume to search@universitybaptist.org. Thank you for your support!

Christmas Hygiene Kit and Greeting Card Ministry for FCCW

Last fall UBC received a note from Ron and Nancy Switzer, the coordinators of the Christmas hygiene kit and greeting card ministry to the Fluvanna Correctional Center for Women (FCCW), saying that because of the COVID 19 pandemic they would not be collecting these items to send to FCCW. "Sadly, this [was] the first year we've missed since 1998, the year the correctional center opened."

After missing last year, we're happy to report that the Christmas Hygiene Kit and Greeting Card Ministry is back on track for Christmas 2021. Sponsored through GraceInside, Virginia's Prison

Chaplain Service, and administered through Effort Baptist Church, the program is supported by your item donations and monetary gifts.

UBC's collection effort will go through Sunday, November 7, but monetary gifts are welcome any time during the year. Each inmate at the Fluvanna Correctional Center for Women receives the gifts listed below. You can give a complete bag or single items.

Please note that the correctional center does not permit ANY substitute or additional items.

Hygiene Items (place in a gallon zip lock bag)

1. One individually wrapped toothbrush (must be in original container)
  2. One tube of toothpaste, 6 oz. (must be in original container, and as close to 2.6 oz. as possible but no larger)
  3. One deodorant stick, 2.6 oz. (no spray or roll-on, as close to 2.6 oz. as possible but no larger)
  4. One bottle of shampoo, 15 oz. (as close to 15 oz. as possible but no larger)
  5. One bottle of lotion, 15 oz. (as close to 15 oz. as possible but no larger)
- No additions or substitutions.

Greeting Cards and Stationery Items

1. Christmas and Hanukkah cards and greeting cards for all occasions. All cards are sorted by an Effort Baptist Church team of volunteers after they're received. Please try to avoid purchasing cards that contain foil on the card or envelope flap.

2. Stationery items – writing paper of any size and envelopes either 3 5/8 x 6 1/2" or 4 1/8 x 9 1/2"

3. Forever postage stamps -- used to send donation acknowledgment letters. Please place them in a separate zip lock bag).

4. Wooden pencils (unsharpened)

UBC's Collection Due Date is Sunday, November 7. Make checks and online donations payable to UBC and earmark "Hygiene kits." Item collection boxes will be located on the stage in the fellowship hall and in the first floor lobby.

Quarterly Statement

Quarterly statements have been mailed and should be expected within the next few weeks. If you have any questions regarding your statement, please email Lexi Woodson at lwoodson@universitybaptist.org or call the office at 434.293.5106.

From the Personnel Committee...

October is Clergy Appreciation Month. The Apostle Paul is thought to have first suggested clergy appreciation in 1 Timothy 5:17, when he stated, "The elders who direct the affairs of the church well are worthy of double honor, especially those whose work is preaching and teaching." That teaching helped inspire the start of Clergy Appreciation Month in 1992 to recognize pastors.

Let us show our pastors how extremely fortunate we are to serve alongside such quality ministers at UBC! Pray for them, write them a note, send them an email, post thanks on your favorite social media, or thank Matt, Will B. and Val in person for the many gifts (leadership, compassion, stewardship, and faith) they generously share with us all year round!

Bible Reading Group finishes Mark!

Our Bible Reading Group meets each Monday morning to read the Bible aloud together. Each week we read a couple chapters from the Old Testament, one psalm, and a couple chapters from the New Testament. This week we finished Mark, the third book we've completed together (after Matthew and Genesis). If you'd like to join us, we meet on Zoom each Monday morning at 10:30. We'd love to have you!

Masks & Social Distancing

University Baptist Church continues to follow the recommendations of the CDC as they are updated. At this time, that means that all individuals, both vaccinated and unvaccinated, should wear a mask for all in-person gatherings in the church building. As we monitor this next wave of COVID cases related to the Delta variant, we will make announcements as our policies are adjusted.
