Amazing Grace! How Sweet the Sound

According to the riches of his grace — Ephesians 1:7 KJV

The musical score consists of three staves of music in G major, 3/4 time. The top staff uses a treble clef, the middle staff a bass clef, and the bottom staff a treble clef. The music features various note values including quarter notes, eighth notes, and sixteenth notes, with rests and dynamic markings like forte and piano.

1. A - maz- ing grace! how sweet the sound, That saved a wretch like me!
2. 'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear, And grace my fears re - lieved;
3. Thro' man - y dan - gers, toils, and snares, I have al - read - y come;
4. The Lord has prom - ised good to me, His word my hope se - cures;
5. When we've been there ten thou - sand years, Bright shin - ing as the sun,

I once was lost, but now am found, Was blind, but now I see.
How pre - cious did that grace ap - pear The hour I first be - lieved!
'Tis grace hath bro't me safe thus far, And grace will lead me home.
He will my shield and por - tion be As long as life en - dures.
We've no less days to sing God's praise Than when we first be - gun.

WORDS: St. 1-4, John Newton, 1725-1807; st. 5, anonymous c. 1790

MUSIC: Virginia Harmony, 1831; arr. Edwin O. Excell, 1851-1921

Yours is the king-dom of God!

This hymn paraphrases the Beatitudes (Matthew 5:1-12), the opening portion of Christ's Sermon on the Mount. Similar words of blessing also occur in the Sermon on the Plain (Luke 6:20-23). Both sets of sayings reverse worldly values and offer a new understanding of God's ways.

Praise God, from Whom All Blessings Flow

Doxology

The musical score consists of three staves of music. The top staff uses a treble clef and has a key signature of one sharp. The middle staff uses a bass clef and has a key signature of one sharp. The bottom staff uses a bass clef and has a key signature of one sharp. The music is in common time. The lyrics are integrated into the music, appearing below each staff. The first staff's lyrics are "Praise God, from whom all blessings flow; praise Christ, all people". The second staff's lyrics are "here be - low; praise Ho - ly Spir - it ev - er - more;". The third staff's lyrics are "praise Tri - une God, whom we a - dore. A - men."

This stirring, prophetic hymn is organized around two recurring four-syllable phrases, the first of which introduces an idealized scenario of what Dietrich Bonhoeffer would call "cheap grace," while the second announces the "costly grace" of God's redeeming work in Jesus Christ.

WELCOME TO UNIVERSITY BAPTIST CHURCH

Thank you for joining us in worship today. We are blessed by your presence with us, and we trust that this hour will help to deepen your spiritual life. We look forward to meeting you personally at the close of the service.

ABOUT Us: University Baptist Church is a vibrant community of faith, bringing together university students and area residents in worship, study, and service to our community. We seek to be an authentic community of Christians who love and care for each other as a family, and openly welcome and include all people regardless of age, race, gender, ethnicity, sexual orientation, disability, or background. We believe that all people have important gifts to share in God's family, working together as the hands and feet of our good and loving God. Learn more at universitybaptist.org

NEWSLETTER: If you would like to stay updated on all the latest news and events at UBC, please text "THEWORD" to 22828 to receive our weekly newsletter. You can also call or email the church office at office@universitybaptist.org
