Maundy Thursday

Opening Words		Dr. Matthew Tennant
Choral Anthem	Come Thou Fount	arr. Ken Medema
*Hymn	The Gathering	Ken Medema
	Out of need and out of custom we have gathered here again. To the gathering we are bringing love and laughter, grief and pain. Some believing, some rejoicing, some afraid and some in doubt. Come we now our questions voicing. We would search these matters out.
	Come, we now our masks displaying, fearing that we shall be known. Foolish games forever playing, feeling, meanwhile, so alone. Let pretension's power be broken, to be human let us dare. Let the truth in love be spoken. Let us now the questing share.
	We have heard the glowing stories of the things which God has done. Of God's power and of God's glory and of Christ, God's holy one. God of human transformation, for your presence now we pray. Lead us ever on the journey as we gather here again.
Gospel Reading	John 18:1-11 (p.880)	Eddy Tennant

Please leave in silence as you are able.

Please rise as you are able, in body or spirit.*

We welcome Ken Medema leading us in worship during Holy Week and on Easter Sunday. His passion for music began at the tender age of five while playing on his mother's piano. He started professional musical instruction when he was eight. He was encouraged to be innovative with his music style and his musical talent flourished. In 1969 he received a Master's Degree in Music Therapy from Michigan State University. Medema began recording albums for Word and Shawnee Press in 1973. During his concerts, he is known for taking three notes on the musical scale and three words called out to him, and then making up a song

University Baptist Church

Thank you for joining us in worship this evening. We are blessed by your presence with us, and we trust that this hour will help to deepen your spiritual life. We look forward to meeting you personally at the close of the service.

About Us: University Baptist Church is a vibrant community of faith, bringing together university students and area residents in worship, study, and service to our community. We seek to be an authentic community of Christians who love and care for each other as a family, and openly welcome and include all people regardless of age, race, gender, ethnicity, sexual orientation, disability, or background. We believe that all people have important gifts to share in God's family, working together as the hands and feet of our good and loving God. Learn more at universitybaptist.org.

Newsletter: If you would like to stay updated on all the latest news and events at UBC, please call or email the church office at linda@universitybaptist.org.

Additional Parking: Additional parking is available at the 14th St. Garage. Just show them your bulletin when you leave.

Giving

God has called University Baptist Church to minister to the University Community and to the residents of the Greater Charlottesville-Albemarle Community, serving as agents of Christ's love and justice for those in need and offering a vital family of faith.

We hope you will join us on Easter Sunday at 11:00 AM.

We look forward to worshipping with you!
